GARFIELD LEAVES WITNESS STAND

Concludes Testimony in Ballinger-Pinchot Inquiry.

AFTER THE DEAL WAS MADE

Witness Says Mr. Ballinger Gave Him an Affidavit Signed by Clarence Cunningham Stating That the Guggenheims Had No Interest in the Cunningham Group of Coal Claims in Alaska After They Had an Option on Them All.

Washington, March 11.—James R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior, was finally excused from the witness stand at the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation. His final half hour before the committee furnished the sensation of what had been up to that time a decidedly dull day.

Mr. Garfield stated that Mr. Ballinger, after having been commissioner of the land office, submitted to him on Sept. 17, 1908, an affidavit signed by Clarence Cunningham and containing the statement that the Guggenheims had no interest whatever in the Cunningham group of coal claims in Alaska, while, as a matter of fact, the record of a recent hearing before the senate committee on territories shows that prior to the making of the affidavit the Guggenheim syndicate had been given an option of a half interest in all the Cunningham claims.

Attorney Brandeis, who was questioning Mr. Garfield, followed the declaration by reading from Secretary Ballinger's report to President Taft on Sept. 4 last, concerning the Glavis charges, the statement that Mr. Ballinger had suggested to Mr. Cunningham an amendment to an affidavit made prior to the one which he presented to Secretary Garfield in September, 1908, and that Mr. Cunningham made the amendment by explaining in detail what he meant by certain terms used in his former affidavit.

Action Entirely Casual.

Mr. Garfield said Mr. Ballinger, in giving him the affidavit, left the impression that his action was entirely casual and that he had been requested by friends in Seattle to leave it on file for whatever it might be worth. Mr. Brandeis then called attention to the fact that the name of Mr. Ballinger's law firm was printed on the backing of the affidavit.

The former secretary of the interior was examined and cross-examined as to his administration of the office which he gave up to Mr. Ballinger on March 5, 1909. Mr. Garfield, in explaining what he did in the matter of the withdrawal of lands without specific provision of law, declared he was working in the interest of the people and to prevent monopolistic control of power sites and consequent extortionate prices to the consumer.

Mr. Garfield was asked whether the $300,000,000 issue of bonds recommended by President Taft was not necessary to relieve hardships growing out of the co-operative plan. He declared that the proposed issue of bonds would cover a much wider field of reclamation than that begun under his administration of the interior department.

"In fact," declared Mr. Garfield, much to the surprise of the committee, "I don't believe it is necessary to issue any bonds at all."

When he had concluded his testimony Mr. Garfield took a seat beside Mr. Pinchot and with arms about each other's shoulders they sat for some time in smiling discussion of the day's events.

A. P. Davis, chief engineer of the reclamation service, followed Mr. Garfield on the stand. Mr. Davis said he preferred not to testify unless directed to do so by the committee. Chairman Nelson gave the direction and Mr. Davis had just started his testimony when adjournment was taken.

FIVE CRUSHED TO DEATH

Fifteen Others Injured by a Falling Wall.

Pittsburg, March 11.—Five men were killed and seven more were probably fatally injured by the collapse of a brick wall left standing in the ruins of the fire which Tuesday morning partly destroyed the Standard manufacturing plant of M. Lanz & Sons. Twenty workmen, mostly foreigners, who were at work on the ruins, were buried under the wall. No signs of the scene of work were escaped injury.

Many Are Unidentified.

Seattle, Wash., March 11.—The potter's field will be the last resting place of a score of victims of the Great Northern avalanche at Wellington, the coroner fears. The bodies recovered are clad only in sleeping garments or are entirely nude, and identification is almost impossible. There are six unidentified bodies in the morgue here, and more are expected.

Just a Bit.

Jack—Your horse has a tremendous long bit.
Tom—Yes, it's a bit too long.

SENATOR DANIEL.

Virginian Suffers a Stroke of Paralysis.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

But Hope Is Entertained for Recovery of Senator Daniel.

Lynchburg, Va., March 11.—Although it had been denied here by both the members of his family and his friends that United States Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia, now at Daytona, Fla., was suffering from a stroke of paralysis, a telegram received by the family from the senator's son-in-law, Fred Harper, who is now with him, stated the senator had had a stroke on his left side. The message said his physicians felt confident of his recovery.

PAYNE OPPOSES THE PROPOSITION

Irrigation Bond Issue Strikes a Snag in the House.

Washington, March 11.—The rocky road that stretches ahead of the proposed bond issue to enable the completion of reclamation projects in the West became visible at the day's hearing on the bills before the house committee on ways and means.

Representative Mondell of Wyoming argued for his bill, which is one of a number before the committee. The Carter bill, which authorizes the issuance of $30,000,000 worth of certificates of indebtedness instead of a bond issue, is one of these pending measures. It has already passed the senate, but has struck a snag in the house committee.

Chairman Payne is opposed to the proposition along with other Republicans and all the Democratic members. Representatives Nedham of California and Ellis of Oregon, in whose states there are large reclamation projects are the particular committee advocates of the proposed legislation.

Indications are against any favorable action on the bond issue or on the proposition endorsed by the senate. Practically every state in which reclamation work is in progress will be given a hearing.

Some of the Western senators and representatives express uneasiness over a suggestion that certain advocates of conservation in the house are inclined to strike back at the West by antagonizing the reclamation completion bills.

RUN ON A CLEVELAND BANK

Frantic Depositors Withdraw Their Money.

Cleveland, March 11.—With thousands of panic-stricken depositors clamoring at its doors, the Bank of the Society for Savings faced the second day of a run which apparently has for its basis merely vague rumors. Ninety per cent of the frightened throng that surrounded the building were women and nearly all are foreigners. The bank officials are unwilling to make any statement as to the amount of money which has been paid out, but they reiterated their assertion that the bank is fully capable of meeting all demands, and this assertion is supported by B. C. Seymour, state examiner of banks.

Hardly Had the Excitement Quieted When Another Holdup Was Reported.

Pittsburg, March 11.—Two paymasters of coal companies were held up in different sections of Eastern Ohio and robbed of sums approximating $5,000, and, as a result of the attacks, one man is dead and another may die. Edward McGinn, paymaster of the Dexter Coal company, and Robert Pommering, an assistant, were overtaken near the company's mine at Brilliant, O., by two men, who beat them into insensibility and escaped with a satchel containing $4,000, the miners' weekly payroll.

Pommering is reported fatally hurt, while McGinn is in a critical condition.

ONE DEAD AND ONE DYING

Paymasters Wounded and Robbed in Ohio.

Washington, March 11.—The Indian appropriation bill, carrying about $10,000,000, passed the senate. While the bill was under consideration a number of Western senators engaged in discussion of the relative merits of reservation and nonreservation Indian schools.

Physician Commits Suicide.

Marshalltown, Ia., March 11.—Dependent on ill health, Dr. L. F. Fry of this city ended his life by hanging himself in an empty room below his living quarters. He was fifty-one years old and son of Dr. Fry, for many years owner of a sanatorium in Colfax, Ia.

POLICE DISPERSE THE MARCHERS

Break Up a Parade of Strikers in Philadelphia.

USE THEIR CLUBS FREELY

Officers Injure Half a Dozen Persons and Arrest a Score of Others Before They Check the Paraders—Disturbances of a Minor Character Occur at a Few Scattered Points—Business Men Working for Peace.

Philadelphia, March 11.—If William Penn, from his lofty perch on the top of the city hall tower, had turned slightly to the left and glanced up North Broad street he could have obtained a bird's eye view of disorder that would have disturbed his peace loving soul.

Featureless except for one thing the sixth day of the general strike in sympathy with the striking carmen of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company witnessed an attempt to make the center of the city the scene of a big demonstration in aid of the strikers' cause.

The police blocked the move—by exercise of "high handed methods" and "brutal" unwarranted force, the strike leaders claim in statements issued later; in prosecution of lawful, justifiable means and with no more force than was necessary to check in its incipiently what might have resulted in a serious disturbance of the peace, the authorities assert.

"March on the city hall," is a slogan which has been heard before in disturbances here. Suspecting that the crowd of 10,000 or more persons who had been prevented from holding an open air meeting in the National League baseball park would take up the indicated line of march the authorities took efficient measures to prevent the invasion of the city's central districts by what it was feared might prove a turbulent mob.

Checked the Marchers.

Lines of police with active clubs partially checked the marchers on their way down Broad street, more than two miles from the objective point. A mile further down they broke up the parade altogether. Half a dozen persons were injured in the onslaught and a score of arrests were made. Crowds of unwelcome proportions thronged the spaces about the city hall until well toward nightfall, but there was no organized demonstration.

There were a few scattered points where disturbances of minor character broke out. More cars were operated than on any day since the strike began—1,140, the company reported, or thirty-six in excess of Wednesday's high record.

Spread of the general strike to a statewide extent is still considered a distant possibility. Meanwhile the business men of the city are to make a new attempt to bring about a settlement.

The strikers gained through accessions from the Baldwin locomotive works of upward of 500 men. On the other hand, various manufacturers reported the return to work of many hands. An obvious defection from the strikers' ranks was that of 100 or more taxicab chauffeurs.

ONE DEAD AND ONE DYING

Paymasters Wounded and Robbed in Ohio.

Pittsburg, March 11.—Two paymasters of coal companies were held up in different sections of Eastern Ohio and robbed of sums approximating $5,000, and, as a result of the attacks, one man is dead and another may die. Edward McGinn, paymaster of the Dexter Coal company, and Robert Pommering, an assistant, were overtaken near the company's mine at Brilliant, O., by two men, who beat them into insensibility and escaped with a satchel containing $4,000, the miners' weekly payroll.

Pommering is reported fatally hurt, while McGinn is in a critical condition.

Hardly had the excitement quieted when another holdup was reported from Zanesville. George Evans, paymaster of the Muckington Coal company, was shot from ambush at Buckeye, ten miles down the river from Zanesville, and died before he was robbed of his weekly payroll of that company.

Senate Passes Indian Bill.

Washington, March 11.—The Indian appropriation bill, carrying about $10,000,000, passed the senate. While the bill was under consideration a number of Western senators engaged in discussion of the relative merits of reservation and nonreservation Indian schools.

Physician Commits Suicide.

Marshalltown, Ia., March 11.—Dependent on ill health, Dr. L. F. Fry of this city ended his life by hanging himself in an empty room below his living quarters. He was fifty-one years old and son of Dr. Fry, for many years owner of a sanatorium in Colfax, Ia.

TOM L. JOHNSON.

Wants to Be Elected to the Ohio Legislature.

WOULD GO TO LEGISLATURE

Tom L. Johnson Wants to Be a Representative or a Senator.

Cleveland, March 11.—Former Mayor Tom L. Johnson, defeated for the mayoralty last fall, has let it be known to his followers in the Democratic party that he would like to go to the legislature next fall either as senator or as representative. He probably will be nominated in the May primaries.

"I'm thinking I'd like to go to the legislature for a season," the former mayor told his ward workers, while plans for the ticket to be named in May were being perfected by the Democrats. "I could save a year and then run again for mayor," he added.

Johnson is a power in the Democratic organization and can be named for the legislature if he desires.

NELSON MAKES A SIGNIFICANT MOVE

Submits Amendments to the Railroad Bill.

Washington, March 11.—Six amendments to the administration railroad bill, three of which are regarded as important, were offered in the senate by Senator Nelson of Minnesota. Three of the Nelson amendments provide for a change in sections of the proposed law that have been severely criticised, namely, the provisions relating to railway mergers, traffic agreements and the right of parties in interstate commerce suits to be represented before the courts.

A good deal of significance is attached to the action of Senator Nelson. It indicates that Republicans friendly to the administration, as well as those classified as out-and-out insurgents, intend to take a hand in perfecting the president's railroad bill.

The most important amendment presented by Mr. Nelson is that eliminating section 12 of the pending bill. Under this section railroads are authorized to acquire the stock of competing lines under certain circumstances. This provision, enacted into law, Mr. Nelson believes, would have the effect of legalizing the Harriman merger of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific roads.

The administration bill, as introduced, practically legalizes "pooling," or traffic agreements. It provides that such agreements may be entered into and become effective after being filed with the interstate commerce commission.

One of the Nelson amendments provides that agreements between carriers as to rates and classification shall be filed with the commission and shall not become effective until twenty days after their approval by the commission.

Senator Nelson is not opposed to the creation of an interstate commerce court, but he believes that the provision establishing this tribunal should be changed in important particulars.

Woman Fatally Burned.

State Center, Ia., March 11.—Mrs. Mary Demange, aged eighty-six, was fatally burned when pouring kerosene over coals in a cook stove. An explosion followed and the woman's clothing was burned from her body. A son, Charles, in attempting to smother the flames, was seriously burned about the hands and arms.

Minnesota Teachers Meet.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 11.—The Educational Interests of the entire Southeastern Minnesota will be represented in Red Wing today and Saturday. About 300 teachers will discuss the year's results in their different works and project new and better plans for the future.

Train Goes Through Bridge.

Marshalltown, Ia., March 11.—Dependent on ill health, Dr. L. F. Fry of this city ended his life by hanging himself in an empty room below his living quarters. He was fifty-one years old and son of Dr. Fry, for many years owner of a sanatorium in Colfax, Ia.

DIFFICULTY MAY BE ADJUSTED

FORMERLY WAS A PREACHER

Gave Up Religious Work and Became Rich Speculating.

Vermillion, S. D., March 11.—Twenty years ago Ole T. Bergstrom was an itinerant preacher in South Dakota, traveling from place to place. He preached many sermons in Clay county, and many old settlers know him well. At that time he could count his worldly possessions with ease.

He died a short time ago in Tennessee, leaving a fortune estimated at anywhere from $1,000,000 to $4,000,000. The only living heirs are Andrew Bergstrom of this city and John Bergstrom of Dalesburg, Clay county, brothers.

After leaving Clay county years ago Mr. Bergstrom went to Oklahoma. There he made his start. He gave up preaching and began speculating in the oil district. In a comparatively short time he amassed a fortune of $175,000.

From there he went to Cumberland county, Tenn., and bought timber and coal lands, investing heavily. It is not known how much land he owned at the time of his death, but it is estimated that his holdings reached 460,000 acres. This land is said to be worth from $10 to $35 per acre, and if this is the case, Bergstrom was more than four times a millionaire.

Shortly after the news of the former preacher's death was received by the brothers in this city, a news item appeared to the effect that Bergstrom had left his fortune to an Omaha lawyer who sixteen years ago assisted him in securing a divorce.

This the brothers deny, and say they have letters showing what disposition would be made of the fortune should Bergstrom die.

AFTER GETTING NOMINATION

Republican Candidate Entitled to Support of Committee.

Washington, March 11.—The Republican congressional campaign committee has nothing whatever to do with the nomination. Any man has a right to seek the nomination for congress on the Republican ticket without let or hindrance. After he is nominated it is the business of the committee to help him in his campaign. The mere fact that he has the Republican nomination entitles him to the support of the committee.

This statement was made by Representative Davidson of Wisconsin, a member of the Republican congressional campaign committee. Mr. Davidson is strongly opposed to the reelection of Speaker Cannon and an advocate of essential changes in the rules.

COBB WILL SUCCEED ALLOS

New York State Senators Disregard Advice of Root and Hughes.

Albany, N. Y., March 11.—Disregarding the advice of United States Senator Elihu Root and Governor Hughes, the Republican members of the state senate at the close of an all night conference selected George H. Cobb of Watertown as president pro tem, to succeed Jotham P. Allos. Cobb received seventeen votes, including his own.

Railroad Firemen May Not Go Out on Strike.

ARBITRATION VERY PROBABLE

Believed Agreement Will Be Reached to Have the Dispute Settled by Mediation—General Managers of the Railroads Soon Will Give Employees Their Answer in Regard to Wage Demands.

Chicago, March 11.—The 25,000 or more firemen on the 190,000 miles of railroads west, northwest and southwest of Chicago, who by a vote authorized their national officials to call a strike if the railroads refused to grant wage concessions, will receive their answer from the railroads soon. The general managers of the railroads will formally notify President W. S. Carter of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen just what their position is in regard to the demands. It may be several days later before the union officials and the railroad managers again meet to determine what shall be done.

This arrangement followed a conference by Mr. Carter and the firemen's delegation with the railroad managers' committee of which W. C. Nixon, general manager of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, is chairman. Managers of nine other Western roads were present. The firemen presented their vote showing that 86 per cent of their membership was against accepting an agreement for improved working conditions without any increased wages.

The railroads were told that the vote authorized a strike should the union officials decide on it. It was then stated that the railroads would make their reply in writing. Confidence was expressed by both sides that a strike would be averted and arbitration would be resorted to. A prominent railroad official said it was unlikely that the railroads would grant the wage demands.

"If all the demands of the firemen were granted the wages would have to be increased 2 1/2 per cent," he said. "This is a greater increase than the railroads can afford to pay. Moreover, it would necessitate a similar increase for all other employees."

MONETARY LOSS NOT LARGE

Financial Standing of Minnesota Insurance Societies Not Impaired.

St. Paul, March 11.—"The investigation being made by the officers and attorneys of fraternal insurance societies does not menace the financial standing of any of these organizations," said State Insurance Commissioner J. A. Hartigan. "I make this statement," he continued, "because erroneous impressions are circulating which may work harm where they should not."

"None of the societies has suffered financial loss as a result of policies being issued on fraudulent applications. The people insured are all, or practically all, alive. Very few death claims have been presented for payment. Those which have been paid amount in the aggregate to but a few thousand dollars—not sufficient to inconvenience the societies concerned, to say nothing of affecting their solvency."

"The societies have been able to protect themselves by placing a firm hand on the crooked work when it was first discovered and taking immediate steps to cancel fraudulent paper."

"I have issued orders to the fraternal societies interested to purge their records of all taint of fraud, and they are doing so as rapidly as possible. So far as I am informed the wrongdoing has been confined to a few Minneapolis men, and their work has all been in one or two lodges in Minneapolis."

NOT MOLESTED BY POLICE

Chicago Women Adopt Suffragette Methods.

Chicago, March 11.—Swooping down on a crowd waiting in line to pay special assessment taxes, the women members of the recently organized "No Tax, No Tax" league, injected some of the suffragette tactics into their demonstration. The women congregated around the corner from the city hall, took office and then with banners lining up in a line of police.

The police held a busy conference with Chief of Police Stearns to see if the suffragette methods were to be allowed in Chicago. It was later decided to permit the women to proceed unmolested in their work.

"WHAT A MAYOR SHOULD BE"

The St. Cloud Times tells the people of that city what their new mayor should be in the following words: "A mayor is to a city what the president is to the nation, or a governor is to a state—its chief executive officer. A mayor should be a man who can represent the city when public bodies meet therein, with dignity and credit to the municipality. He should be a man of clear understanding and sound business judgment, for it is a part of his duty to pass upon and approve or disapprove local legislation—or ordinances or resolutions of the city council. It devolves upon him to approve or disapprove the granting of franchises involving interests that may affect future generations. He should be a broadminded, an intelligent, an independent, an impartial individual—one who would be fearless in the discharge of his duty." "Judging from the discussions we hear, and some of the candidates proposed, it would seem that a portion of our people would make a burlesque of this most important of city offices. Such voters are not good citizens—they care nothing for the credit and good name of St. Cloud."

Carpenters will commence work tomorrow remodeling the east room in the Sleeper block for the new Grand Theatre. The management states that the doors will be locked when work commences and the public will not be admitted until the theatre is ready for opening. This will not probably be before the 15th of April.

Yardmaster and Mrs. J. M. Glunt, of Brainerd, arrived here Tuesday on an extended trip of several weeks. They visited friends and old neighbors at this place and departed yesterday afternoon on a trip to the coast. They will stop at various places along the way, such as Mandan, Glendive, Livingston, Helena, Missoula, Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, going south to Los Angeles and Riverside, Cal., and returning by way of Omaha and Council Bluffs, where they will visit relatives before starting for St. Paul and Home. Sweet Home. Jerry has been rail-roading for about fifty years, except a few years he served with Knapp's Battery during the Civil war, and he has well earned a little rest. We sincerely hope that both Mr. and Mrs. Glunt will have a very pleasant trip and return feeling much refreshed.—Staples World.

CREW WORKING NIGHT AND DAY

Cable Crew for Northwestern Telephone Exchange Company Working Two Shifts

SWITCH BOARD PROGRESSING

Waiting for Material Delayed Construction and Cutting in Will be Delayed

The cable crew of the Northwestern Telephone Exchange company has been working night and day getting the splices made in the man holes, where the different cables meet. The work has been delayed considerably by reason of failure of material to arrive when expected and it is doubtful if the new exchange can be cut in before the 1st of April.

Nearly all of the new phones are now in place and practically all of the buildings have been wired. The work of testing out the new phones has been commenced and the phones will doubtless all be ready as soon as the new switchboard is complete. The installing of an exchange of the size and character of the one being put in Brainerd is a large task and one needs only to visit the new quarters of the company in the Cullen block to realize what a perfect maze of wires have to be sorted out and connected up in half a dozen different places. The frame work of the exchange switchboard is in place and men have been at work for nearly two weeks connecting up and testing out the wires.

A crew of four men were at work this forenoon making a splice in the large cable in the conduit on Front street. They were working at the manhole at the corner of Front and Broadway and nearly every passer by would pause for a few moments to watch the deft movements of the splicers. There are two men to a crew, one of whom slips paper sleeves over the end of one of each pair of wires. The other man strips the paper insulation from the ends of the wires and twists them together, clips off the extra ends and slips the sleeve over the splice. After all the wires are spliced, a lead sleeve is slipped over the joint in the cable and soldered the lead pipe carrying the wires.

When a "tag splice" is made each wire has to be tested and tagged with a number for connections with the switchboard. One cable splice made at the manhole by Brockway & Parker's store took a crew two days and one night to complete.

SHOULD REVIVE LEAGUE

Citizen Expresses Belief that Brainerd Should Revive its Civic League

"The movement for a 'Beautiful Brainerd' which started two or three years ago, should be renewed this spring," said a well known business man Thursday. "Nothing so tends to attract outsiders as a neat, well kept city, and no advertisement for the city is so cheap as this. In fact it costs less than nothing, as any money expended for cleaning up and beautifying a property adds more to its value than it costs.

"With Brainerd's park board expending public money to beautify the parks, it should be a stimulus to the owners and occupants of property to beautify their homes. The movement should be renewed this

AN ARTISTIC SHOWING of PRINTZESS STYLES

Beautiful, more beautiful, most beautiful and yet these words do not express the beauty of the new spring suits. Fashion has said that these garments must be made thus and so, and you have every good feature embroidered in these garments.

Tailored suits have come to be an indispensable garment in every woman's wardrobe and will continue to be, so long as manufacturers make them plain and elegantly tailor them. We know of no garment which makes a more economical garment for a woman than a tailored suit.

The majority of these garments are the PRINTZESS garment which we have featured for many seasons. The fit about the collar, the shoulders, the front of the coat and hips cannot be excelled and the tailoring is so much better than ordinary that it is most distinctive.

We have marked our garments at a lower price than we have before altho the quality of them is better. Our new prices should, and we believe will, interest you. We show suits at $12.50, $17.50, $23.50, $27.50, $30.00, $35.00, and $37.50. You see we can meet the demand of all purses.

If you are considering the purchase of some kind of new garment for spring, permit us to show you these garments. If you are undecided perhaps the seeing of these will help to decide. We shall gladly show them to you and not frown if you do not purchase.

We have styles in separate coats which cannot be improved upon

Separate coats—coats that have style that you would be pleased to possess, qualities that will wear and at prices which will please you is what we have to offer and we offer you a splendid selection too.

The long coats are particularly desirable this season and they are made of unusually attractive cloths. The always serviceable coverts are used as well as some pretty fancy colored cloths and diagonals. We have a particularly large line for the Miss.

The short coats are not expensive. We have them for $4.50 to $7.50 and show beautiful things at these prices. It matters not the size of the purse or how good your taste is we have an assortment to please all.

OFFICIALS STATE CASE

Managers of Six Roads Hold Conference with Board of Arbitration

Minneapolis, Mar. 10th—Officials of six railway companies met in secret session today with the state board of arbitration at the capitol, to discuss the switchmen's strike. They met in response to an invitation from the board. Their appearance marks a change of attitude, as when the board first took up the strike settlement, the officials of the roads declared there was no strike and they had nothing to discuss unless there were complaints regarding service.

The board is seeking today to learn the best terms the companies will make to the strikers if they return to work. The position of the strikers was learned at a similar meeting Tuesday. After today's conference the board will know just how far apart the two interests are, and what the prospect is for peace.

Those representing the roads today were J. H. Foster, assistant general superintendent and F. W. Root, attorney of the Milwaukee, both of Minneapolis; G. R. Huntington, general manager of the Soo, Minneapolis; W. G. Bied, general manager of the Minneapolis & St. Louis, Minneapolis; E. C. Blanchard, assistant general superintendent of the Northern Pacific, St. Paul; H. A. Kennedy, assistant general manager of the Northern Pacific, St. Paul, and A. W. Trenholm, general manager of the Omaha, St. Paul.

Mr. Trenholm was the first speaker and made a statement as to the working conditions of the men, which subject has been dwelt upon by the strikers. The session was continued into the afternoon.

Seven Reasons Why You Should Use Brown's Spring Water

1. Because, it is the only pure running water offered for sale.
2. Because, it has no chance for contamination.
3. Because it is handled in a perfectly sanitary way.
4. Because there has been no typhoid fever among exclusive spring water users.
5. Because, it does not have to be boiled.
6. Because, it is tasteless and agrees with the most delicate stomachs.
7. Because, it is giving better satisfaction now than in years before.

There are more people using Brown's Spring Water now than ever before. You are invited to visit the spring and see for yourself.

START STEEL GANG

Work of Laying Heavier Steel Between Deerwood and Brainerd will Commence Monday

The work of completing the laying of 90-pound steel on the Duluth-Staples line will be resumed next Monday. Work was shut down in November because of the fact that the men could not be held for track work after the lumber camps opened. It is expected that work will be commenced with a crew of at least 100 men. Roadmaster Tyler states that men seem to be plenty this spring and the company expects very little trouble to keep a full crew. The work of laying the steel and completing the ballasting of the road between Deerwood and Brainerd will be pushed to a rapid completion.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Ticket Sale Tomorrow

The ticket sale for Byron's Troubadours, which appear at the opera house Monday evening, March 14, under the auspices of the Elks, will open at Dunn's drug store tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Prices 75c, 50c and 25c.

The Dixon III, Daily Sun says of them: "Monday night the Byron Troubadours, consisting of seven musicians of considerable ability, made their first appearance at the Chautauqua and scored a decided hit with a large audience. The people were agreeably surprised, for they knew nothing of the company. All doubts as to the merits of the performance of the evening were dispelled following the opening number. The artists give a varied entertainment, which is replete with numbers that please the popular fancy. For more than an hour and a half the program continued and the audience did not tire; in fact, would have been glad to remain longer. It consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, duets, quartets and orchestra numbers that enervated the different numbers that encores were given each. The singing of popular songs was especially liked. The Byrons will appear several times during the remainder of the Chautauqua."

A Night Alarm

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. Foley's Honey and Tar has saved many little lives. No opiates. For sale by all druggists. mwf

Towns with Hustling Clubs

Bemidji's commercial club has in its treasury a club fund of $3,311.60. Their receipts during the past amounted to $38,400.64, largely a bonus fund of $30,000 to the Soo to run through the town. It is a hustling club, but no more so than St. Cloud's. The people of Bemidji, however, seem to realize more than St. Cloud's residents do, the great importance of such an organization. —St. Cloud Times.
